Legal Updates

Arizona Personal Injury Law Update:

The Arizona Supreme Court recently issued an important decision in Cravens v. Montano that strengthens protections for people injured in work related vehicle accidents.

Many people assume that if a crash involves a personal vehicle, only the driver's personal insurance applies. This ruling clarifies that when an employee is performing job related duties at the time of the accident, the employer's insurance may also provide coverage, even if the employer doesn't own the vehicle. For injured individuals, this can be critical because it may open the door to additional insurance coverage and more complete compensation, rather than leaving them limited to an individual driver's personal auto policy.

The decision also protects injured individuals by confirming that certain settlement agreements remain enforceable when insurance companies deny coverage. This ensures that victims are not unfairly blocked from pursuing the compensation they deserve.

For the public, this ruling reinforces the importance of not taking an insurance company's first answer at face value. If you've been injured in an accident involving work activities or complex insurance issues, you may have more rights and more coverage than you realize. Our firm specializes in uncovering these hidden layers of protection and advocating for injury victims every step of the way.

Case Study:

We recently had the privilege of helping a wonderful couple who were seriously injured during an adventurous activity. Both required significant medical challenges and continue to cope with the lasting effects of their injuries.

Our team worked tirelessly and diligently, carefully investigating every aspect of their case and advocating fiercely on their behalf. We were able to secure a substantial settlement for these deserving clients, a result that reflects both their resilience and our commitment to treating every case as personal.

Firm News & Community Engagement

Torgenson Law Celebrates 2nd Year at Phoenix Pride

We were thrilled to celebrate our second year at the Phoenix Pride Festival, where the Torgenson Law team proudly showed up to support love, equality, and community. Our booth was buzzing with excitement throughout the weekend as attendees played ring toss to win a variety of fun prizes, creating plenty of laughter and friendly competition.

This event gave us a meaningful opportunity to connect with the community, share our mission, and hear from so many incredible people. We received over 50 new reviews, which means so much to us as a local firm built on trust, integrity, and relationships.

Phoenix Pride continues to be a highlight of our year, reflecting the unity, compassion, and inclusivity we believe in. We are thankful to everyone who stopped by our booth and helped make last year's festival such a success. We look forward to returning this year to continue spreading pride, positivity, and connection across the Valley.

Recent Achievements:

We wrapped up a strong fourth quarter, securing multiple significant results for clients recovering from serious injuries, including several dog bite cases involving facial trauma and policy-limit recoveries in auto and pedestrian matters. Each of these outcomes reflects our continued commitment to advocating for injury victims and ensuring they receive the compensation and support necessary for their recovery.

We are also proud to share that John Torgenson has been selected for inclusion in the 2026 Southwest Super Lawyers list, an honor awarded to only five percent of attorneys in the region.

With this momentum, we're excited to enter 2026 with confidence and energy, ready to take on new challenges, achieve meaningful results for even more clients, and build on the successes of last year.

Giving Back:

This past quarter, we proudly continued our commitment to community involvement by supporting a variety of impactful and exciting events. We teamed up with the PNC Bank Fiesta Sports Foundation Par 3 Challenge presented by Chapman Automotive, helping raise funds to support athletic and educational initiatives for local youth. We were honored to participate in the Junior Achievement Stock Market Challenge, where students got hands-on experience in financial literacy and investing.

In Northern Arizona, we helped sponsor the Page Balloon Regatta, a vibrant event that brings residents and visitors together for a one-of-a-kind celebration. We rounded out the quarter with our Annual Torgenson Law Holiday Party, a tradition we treasure as it allows us to come together in joy and gratitude as a team. We also helped sponsor the Lake Powell National Black Tee Challenge Golf Tournament and the Page Animal Adoption Agency's "Wags N Wine" event that helps to fund an important animal rescue and adoption in our beloved Page, Arizona community.

Giving back is at the heart of our mission, and in 2026 we look forward to building on our impact and make a meaningful difference in the communities we serve.

Staff Spotlight

This quarter, we are proud to spotlight our director of first impressions, Corina Alfaro. A little about Corina:

- Background: Corina has been an essential part of Torgenson Law for eleven years, making her one of the firm's longest tenured team members. As director of first impressions, Corina balances managing in office meetings, new client intakes, directs incoming calls, oversees the firm's document management system, and ensures that every document entering the office is properly filed and organized. She also greets every client and vendor with kindness and professionalism, setting the tone for the caring and client focused environment that defines Torgenson Law. Corina truly has her hands in every aspect of the firm and plays a vital role in keeping the office running efficiently.

- Passions & Interests: Outside of work, Corina lives a full and active life. She enjoys traveling, cooking, working out, dancing, and exploring her passion for fashion and music. Corina loves spending time with her friends and family, who keep her grounded and inspired. Her enthusiasm, energy, and love of life shine through both inside and outside the office.

- Favorite Part of Working at Torgenson Law: For Corina, the most rewarding part of her role is building genuine relationships with clients and helping them through some of the most difficult times in their lives. She takes pride in being part of a team that never gives up and fights for every client until the very end. Corina's compassion, dependability, and unwavering positivity make her an invaluable member of the Torgenson Law family. We are deeply grateful for her eleven years of dedication and the warmth she brings to the firm every single day.

5-Star Reviews & Client Testimonials

We are honored to receive incredible feedback from our clients. Here's what one of them had to say:

"This year I was attacked by a dog and I was lost on what to do or go about it with hospital bills and everything in between. Torgenson Law was definitely there to help! I worked with Ari and Candice and they took care of everything. It was a stress free lawsuit and a fast moving one as well, I got everything I was promised. If I am ever in a situation again as I was back in May, Torgenson will be the only law firm I will trust. Thank you guys so much for taking care of everything during a stressful time and not adding more trauma onto the situation, you're truly appreciated!"
